Intervention Tutors for English and Science
Part-time, flexible, self-employed IR35 basis
To start ASAP
£25.00 per hour

Oldershaw School are currently recruiting for several Secondary English and Science Intervention Tutors to work on a part-time basis with pupils in small groups ranging from 1:1 to 1:6.

Tutoring plays a vital role in allowing children to “catch up” and bridges the gap created by the pandemic. This role is open to anyone with experience of the KS3 and KS4 Science and/or English curriculum and holds QTS. Completion of our mandatory tutoring training is required before starting work.

As a successful tutor you will possess:

- QTS or equivalent, and have recent experience in teaching and/or tutoring
- Good knowledge of the English/Science curricula
- Experience of teaching to GCSE/A Level using a syllabus
- Be able to explain key concepts fluently and accurately
- Be prepared to tutor face to face and/or online depending on school preference and availability
- The ability to work to the school’s scheme of work and provide constructive and effective feedback
- Good time management to fully utilise the sessions

Further details and an application pack can be obtained from the school’s website.

Your application form, and covering letter should be submitted to: HR@oldershaw.wirral.sch.uk

This post is subject to an Enhanced DBS check. The school is committed to the safeguarding and welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

The school is an Equal Opportunities Employer and positively welcomes applications from all people regardless of their sex, creed, marital status, race, age, disability, sexual orientation.
